Helen from Helena

Words by Wm WOLFFALL.

Music by FRANK P. HAYES.

There's a place in old Mon-tan-a, Where the girls are hard to beat. It's the Now of course you've all had sweet-hearts, And I'm sure you will con-fess, Ev'-ry place they call the Cap-i-tal, And they al-ways look so sweet. You can fel-low thinks that his girl, Is far bet-ter then the rest. Though your see them in your trav - els, You can see them ev - 'ry - where, But sweet-heart may be Al - ice, Fan - nie, Ma - bel Dean or Pearl, But I will tell you of a girl, With her none can com - pare.—

 when you see my Hel - en You will say that she's some girl.—>

CHORUS.

Hel - en, my Hel - en from Hel - en - a — The fair - est flow-er in Mon - tan - a — Her eyes are blue as the blu - est sky,— One glance from her will make you sigh—Hel - en, my Hel - en from Hel - en - a You'll al - ways be my bright and shin - ing star.— At night I dream a - bout you, I'll nev - er live with-out you, Hel - en from Hel - en - a

The sheet music consists of four staves of musical notation. The top staff uses a treble clef, the second and third staves use a bass clef, and the bottom staff uses a bass clef. The music is in common time. The lyrics are placed below each staff. The first staff contains the lines 'blu - est sky,— One glance from her will make you sigh—'. The second staff contains 'Hel - en, my Hel - en from Hel - en - a You'll al - ways'. The third staff contains 'be my bright and shin - ing star.— At night I dream a - bout you,'. The fourth staff contains 'I'll nev - er live with-out you, Hel - en from Hel - en - a'. The music features various chords and rests, with some notes connected by beams.
