THEY still believe, in old Japan, Should lovers live their earthly span Without fulfillment of desire, Or leave unquenched love's sacred fire, They'll live again to love at last, When ten thousand years have passed.

Ten thousand years seem a long, long time To wait for a dream to come true, Yet 'twould seem but a day Dreaming cent'ries away, To wake at the end with you. For I know just as sure as our souls endure, We'll meet somewhere, somehow, And I'll wake to your song, With a love just as strong, Ten thousand years from now.

No lapse of time nor length of space Can dim the mem'ry of your face; No tales ten thousand tongues might tell Can change in me your magic spell, Nor still the song within my soul, Tho' ten thousand years unroll.

J. Keirn Brennan.
