The Sweetest Rose Of All.

Lyric by
O. ABBEY.

Music by
WM. WITOL.

Moderato

f

The first system of the score shows the piano introduction. It consists of two staves, treble and bass clef, in a 2/4 time signature with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The tempo is marked 'Moderato'. The music begins with a forte (f) dynamic. The right hand features a series of eighth-note chords and single notes, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of eighth notes.

Vamp

The second system contains the first vocal line and its piano accompaniment. The vocal line is on a single staff with a treble clef. The piano accompaniment is on two staves (treble and bass clef). The tempo is marked 'Vamp'. The lyrics are: 'Nature gives us flowers to / Roses can bring gladness when'. The piano part includes a section marked 'Vamp' with a piano (p) dynamic.

love, car-ess a-dore, To cheer up lone-some hours And ev'-ry thing looks blue, Just kiss them in your sad-ness Then

The third system contains the second vocal line and its piano accompaniment. The vocal line continues with the lyrics: 'love, car-ess a-dore, / ev'-ry thing looks blue, / To cheer up lone-some hours And / Just kiss them in your sad-ness Then'. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and single notes.

glad-ness to re-store; Ro-ses make me think of one sweet day, watch them trans-form you; Sweethearts know the val-ue of a rose,

The fourth system contains the third vocal line and its piano accompaniment. The vocal line concludes with the lyrics: 'glad-ness to re-store; / watch them trans-form you; / Ro-ses make me think of one sweet day, / Sweethearts know the val-ue of a rose,'. The piano accompaniment ends with a final chord and a fermata over the bass line.
