WHAT MORE CAN BE DESIRED?

No money wasted in useless ornamentation, but the exterior is rich, dignified and handsome.

"We have for a number of years used Ebersole Pianos in the Conservatory where they are constantly subjected to the hardest kind of use. We have found the Ebersole to be a good, durable piano, well able to stand the wear and tear of the music room." MISS CLARA BAUR, Directress Cincinnati Conservatory of Music.

1. I'm not a mil-lion-aire with plen-ty wealth to spare, And pran-cing steeds and serv-ants at my
2. From morning's ear-ly light, un-til the shades of night, With bus-y hand I pass the hours a-call, But on my work-stained face 'the stamp of toil you trace, I'm way. A mid the dai-ly toil I see a lov-ing smile, And just a son of la - bor, that is all. . . . Mine is no man - sion fair, a tho'ts of home will cheer me thro' the day. . . . It fills me with de - light, the cot - tage is my share, With lit - tle wife and cher - ubs round my knee, And wel - come home at night, The moth - er's kiss and chil - dren's mer - ry glee, And when the day is o'er, they meet me at the door, 'Tis humble, but 'tis home sweet home to me. . . .

hap - py as a king with - in my house I sing, 'Tis humble, but 'tis home sweet home to me. . . .

CHORUS.

No cause have I to roam, I love my lit - tle home, The
