How can I bear the part-ing, Wait-ing a-lone for I won-der if she is look-ing, Up at our star to-you, But I will prom-ise you sweet-heart, night, May-be where she is watch-ing,

That I will e'er be true, Up in the Heav-ens a It does not shine so bright, Soft-ly her eyes closed in bright star, Twin-kled and seemed to say, slum-ber, Once more she stood by his side,

“I will watch ov - er you, sweet-heart, _____ when you are far a - Dressed all in white at the al - tar, _____ For she was now his way,” _____ Be brave my dar - ling he told her, _____ bride, _____ When he a - woke all was dark - ness, _____ see our star shin - ing so bright, _____ It will bring joy to our Their star had fad - ed a - way, _____ But ev' - ry breeze that hearts, dear, _____ Watch - ing it ev - er - y night, _____ passed by, _____ Seemed to whis - per and say; _____
