"BE still, and know that I am God,
Whatever may befall!
I hold earth's waters in my hand,
E'en note the sparrow's fall.
My peace I give, thy fears allay.
Oh, weary heart, rejoice!
For I am with thee, yea, always!"
So speaks the Silent Voice.

"How can ye doubt that I can save,
E'en to the very end?
I am the Resurrection and the Life,
Thy Saviour, Lord and Friend."
O, Silent Voice, that ever calls,
My wand'ring footsteps guide
Unto the paths of righteousness,—
O Lord, with me abide.
O, Lord, with me abide!

"I will not leave thee comfortless;
Oh, dry thy falling tears!
There is no sorrow but I know;
I'll quiet all thy fears.
And the abundance of my truth
Shall make ye all rejoice,
Ye shall not then depart from me!"
So speaks the Silent Voice.
