A Southern Croon

Words by R.W. LARDNER.
Music by G. HARRIS ("DOG") WHITE.

Andante

Little col·ored child, He's been run·ning wild, Run·ning all the live·long day,
Little shi·ning star, In the sky a·far, Tells my boy to go to sleep,

Must be tir·ed out, Must be just a·bout
Go to sleep and rest, On your mam·my's breast,

Read·y now to seek the hay; Mam·my sits right near While the an·gels watch will keep; Sweet·est dreams will come.

Pick-a-ninny dear
To my sugar-plum
Nothin's goin' to harm him,
To my little heart's desire

no, light,
Mam-my she, her watch will keep,
Cuddle down and shut your eyes,

While her little boy's a-sleep
On his pillow white as snow,
Waking with the bright sunrise,
Little Puff of Smoke, Good-night.

Refrain

Time to sleep and rest,
In your cozy nest,

V.K. 1241-3-2
Time to close those little lids down tight; Other kids like you,

They are sleeping too, Waiting for tomorrow's sunshine bright, When the new dawn breaks,

Pick-a-ninny wakes, Little Puff of Smoke, Good-night.

"IMAM"

By NATHANIEL D. MANN

This is the name of that weird and captivating melody that you hear all the bands and orchestras playing. It is a serenade two-step, quite easy to play and very catchy.

We herewith submit for your kind consideration some of our Instrumental Hits.
