If you could only read my heart, dear,
The golden hopes that oft would cheer me,

Its joys and sorrows too
Still in my heart remain

A tender tale it would imbue

I must confess, just like the rest, I've been in love and
And it just seems, all these love dreams, Grow up with him as been loved too, But now I know that I've been only gues-sing, he grows too, But then at last he's sure to meet the right one.
Now I'm sure my foolish days are thro' For I'm on the square,
How he knows 'tis just his heart can say, And so dear, it's true I
When I declare, that I'm in love with you, know I love you, my heart told me one day.
You're my girl.
CHORUS.

You're my girl, you're my girl,
Two red lips to kiss me right,
Two round arms to hold me tight, For you're my girl.

And in all this world No other girl could win my heart, For you're my girl.

You're my girl. 3.
